Sunday Services.

At St. George Tabernacle.

Sunday, November 15th, 1896.

Bishop James Andrus presiding.
Elder Joseph H. Armstrong, of Utah, who is filling a mission as a minister in the St. George Temple, while I am here with you my children and sisters I desire to so that I may be worthy of your confidence. My coming among you at this time, when sickness and sorrow exists to such an alarming extent and a number of your loved ones have been removed by death, has placed me in a condition to become acquainted with my brethren and hold the holy priesthood, much easier than I would have done under ordinary circumstances, and although I am a stranger to many of you I have felt in my spirit to be one with you, for I have not nor do I feel as though I was among strangers, for being in your society I feel that it is of peace and love that is manifest with the saints of God wherever we go, and I trust that all of us may so conduct our lives that when we are called hence we may be worthy of an exaltation with just in the kingdom of heaven.
President David H. Cannon addressed the Latter-day Saints to obey the order of God and bring their offerings to the meetings called for that purpose and have them blessed, and also to perform all other duties required of us, and not forget our offerings, that there may be abundance in the hands of the bishop to supply the poor with food and the necessary comforts of life, and he earnestly prayed that the blessing of God might rest upon the people.

subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow.
The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it.
The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious.

FUNERAL SERVICES

OVER THE REMAINS OF ELDER GEORGE THOMAS PRICE.

Who was accidentally killed on the 13th inst by being thrown from a load of wood, was held in the St.
George Tabernacle on the 16th of November, 1896, Bishop Andrus presiding.

After singing, a very solemn and appropriate prayer was offered by Daniel D. McArthur.

Elder Richard Morris said this is one of the saddest gatherings we have had for a long time, as in this case the father of the family has been taken without warning. A family is left to mourn the loss of a protector and provider who has lived in fear of the Lord.

Elder James G. Bleak said it is plain by the great amount of people that have met here this morning that this is an uncommon occurrence and we are here to show to this bereaved family that we are in sympathy with them and we desire to do what we can to at least try to offer our aid in their sad bereavement.

He read from the book of Revelations some of the comforting words contained therein in regard to the reward that God has in store for those who love him and keep his commandments, as this our beloved brother, whose remains lie here before us, has done. Also read from the book of Doctrine and Covenants, showing the good blessings that God has in store for those who have been faithful in keeping the Covenants they have made in sacred places. His life has been spent in sustaining and defending the cause of God he loved so well. He prayed that God would comfort and bless the bereaved family.

President David H. Cannon felt to sorrow at this sad bereavement, and, if possible, to try and add a few words of comfort to the bereaved. He read from pages 79, 80 and 81 of the Doctrine and Covenants, showing the great and glorious privileges that God has promised those who have kept the faith, as this our the good deeds done in his everyday life, and he felt to bless the bereaved family and prayed that in this sad experience there may be a consoling and comforting spirit to cheer and bless them in this their trying hour.

Bishop Andrus said although we may be unable to cheer the spirits of this bereaved family we can show to them by our acts that we are their true friends in trying to assist the bereaved and make their paths as smooth as possible, and prayed God to comfort and bless them.

President D. D. McArthur bore testimony to the words that had been spoken and he also prayed God our eternal father to give his holy spirit to the bereaved family of brother Price.

A large congregation attended the services and a long procession followed the remains to their resting place in the St. George cemetary.

A book—Doctrine and Covenants —was found in Dameron Valley, last fall, and has been left at the residence of George F. Jarvis, where it can be obtained by the owner.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr.
Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by John R. Michels, St.
George, Utah.

James Rencher and family have moved to town to remain during the winter.

The walls of the tannery building are now up ready for the roof.

The thresher is now daily at work threshing out lucern seed.

Father Bracken and wife love the genial climate of St. George better than the cold of Pine Valley and will be residents of our city this win-
